PRESS RELEASE FOR AUGUST 22, 2016

Burglary

On August 10, 2016, Hilltown Township Police responded to the 900 block of Dublin Road for a reported residential burglary. Investigation determined that an unknown actor entered the residence and stole various items which included a Samsung Flat Screen Television.

On August 16, 2016, Hilltown Township Police investigated another residential burglary located in the 1900 block of Rickert Road. Investigation determined that an unknown actor entered the residence and stole various items including men's and women's jewelry.

Through investigation, Police determined that a Samsung Flat Screen Television was sold to Cash Converters, located in Pottstown, PA by an Angel Rodriguez Morales on August 10, 2016. Morales returned to cash converters on subsequent dates and sold various men's and women's gold jewelry.

On August 18, 2016, Police located Morales at the Summit Ridge Apartments located in Hilltown Township and questioned him regarding his sale of the television and jewelry. Morales admitted to burglarizing the residences in Hilltown Township and another residence in Bedminster Township.

Angel Rodriguez Morales, 37, with no fixed place of residence was placed under arrest for Burglary, Theft by Unlawful Taking, and Receiving Stolen Property for the Hilltown Township offenses. He was video arraigned before Magisterial District Judge Daniel Finello of Warminster, PA and subsequently committed to the Bucks County Correctional Facility in lieu of posting $50,000.00 or 10% cash bail.

Morales used a silver 4 door Acura during the commission of the burglaries and is suspected of committing other burglaries in the area. Anyone with information should contact Hilltown Police or their local police department. Victims may contact Hilltown Police at 215-453-6000 to view recovered jewelry.
