Requirements for a Home Occupation: “Professional Office or Home Craft”

For a person to secure a permit for a home occupation, professional office, home craft, it would be necessary to submit a completed zoning permit application along with a detailed plot plan specifying how all the requirements will be addressed. If a proposal cannot meet all the requirements, then the applicant may appeal to the zoning hearing board to request a variance.

In addition to the zoning ordinance requirements, the Pa. Uniform Construction Code (UCC) also contains requirements that must be met, and it would be necessary for any applicant to submit a building permit application as well as a licensed architect or professional engineer to design the necessary plan/construction drawing detailing how the proposal would meet the requirements of 2015 IBC Sec. 419, Live/work Units and ICC/ANSI A117.1-2009, as well as any other applicable UCC requirements.

Home occupations, assuming they can meet all the ordinance requirements, are allowed in all zoning districts except the Quarry (Q) district.

Please be advised that this ‘Fact Sheet’ is meant as a general guide and may not necessarily be all inclusive; not all the requirements may necessarily apply; it is possible that during the process of review, additional items or requirements may be identified.
